

THE ANNUAL FUND DRIVE 2011 - 2012

The  Community
LIBRARY

WITH YOUR LIBRARY CARD, YOU CAN

- READ Check out a classic novel, a beach book, a Talking Book, a Teaching Company CD, or the latest non-fiction work from our extensive collection.
- RELATE Connect with the world on our free public-access computers equipped with a lightning-fast fiber-optic Internet connection.
- REASON Enjoy a broad range of speakers, authors, films, historians, and even comedians at the Library's free lecture series.
- RELAX Plan your next vacation in our new travel station in the Reference Library.
- REACH Bring your children, your grandchildren, your friends, and family to the Library. Everyone is welcome. Thanks to the generosity of many, all our programs and services are free.

Explore the history of our area in the Regional History Department.

Photos, oral histories, newspapers, ephemera, and one the most extensive collections of Ernest Hemingway materials available in the U.S.

OUR VISION: TO ENABLE SUCCESS

Learn a new language or practice your English.

Find 31 languages represented at the Community Library, including 13 on Rosetta Stone software.

THE COMMUNITY LIBRARY LECTURE SERIES

www.thecommunitylibrary.org/calendar.php

Our free cultural programs bring thousands of people to the Library. Authors, filmmakers, historians, photographers, and others educate, enrich, and entertain the entire community.

Highlights of 2011:

- ❖ Anthony Geffen's presentation of his film "The Wildest Dream," recounting the saga of George Mallory and the conquest of Everest.
- ❖ Former Time magazine White House photographer Diana Walker's three decades of photographs chronicling the U.S. presidencies of Ford, Carter, Reagan, George H. Bush, and Clinton.
- ❖ Bestselling authors Dave Barry and Ridley Pearson entertained a packed Lecture Room, overflowing the overflow seating in July.
- ❖ "How Much Less is More" an exploration of Minimalism in the visual arts featuring artist, critic, and former curator at MoMA Robert Storr's lecture "A Look at Minimalism in the Mainstream," collaboratively presented with the Sun Valley Summer Symphony and the Sun Valley Center for the Arts.

Executive Director Colleen Daly unpacks the Diana Walker exhibit.

1/3 OF THE 140K ANNUAL LIBRARY USERS ARE CHILDREN

Colonel Gale Halvorsen, 90 years old, packed the Lecture Room and recounted dropping candy for the children of Berlin during WWII. The sweetest missions ever flown by the United States Air Force earned the pilot who flew them the nickname "The Candy Bomber" during the historic Berlin Airlift of 1948 and 1949.

How To Support Your Library and Really Save On Your Taxes

The Idaho Tax Code allows a substantial tax credit for contributions to a variety of educational institutions including public libraries, and contributions to the Community Library are eligible.

Under the tax credit provision, an Idaho resident taxpayer may receive a reduction of his/her state income tax bill by up to 50% of any contribution to the Library. The credit is capped at $500 for individual taxpayers, $1,000 for couples, and cannot exceed one half of the taxpayer's total Idaho income tax liability. As a result of this credit, a couple donating $2,000 to the Library could reduce their Idaho income tax bill by as much as $1,000.

In addition, the donor receives the usual state and Federal charitable gift tax deductions.

The combined effect of the tax credit and the tax deductions may reduce the net cost of a $2,000 gift to significantly less the $1,000 – in some cases to less than $600.

Before claiming this credit, you should consult your tax advisor.

Gold Mine thrift store

The Gold Mine is proud to provide an important piece of the Library's financial support.

When you clean out your closets or your garage, remodel your kitchen, or have excess inventory from your business, bring it to the Gold Mine, where it will be transformed into children's programming, library books, quality presentations for the whole community, and other high-level library services you expect from your Community Library.

YOU CAN INVEST IN THE FUTURE OF THE LIBRARY

- ✦ Send a gift in the attached envelope. Donations support the lively cultural programming, books, free fiber-optic Internet access, DVDs, Wi-Fi, language-learning materials, and more, all available at your Community Library.
- ✦ Support the Gold Mine by shopping, or by donating your useful items.
- ✦ Volunteer with the Friends of the Library (FOL). Email Volunteer Coordinator Tom Jewell: fol@friendsofthelibrary.org.
- ✦ Contact Development Director Colleen Crain to discuss philanthropic goals for you and the Community Library. 208-726-7355 x105, or ccrain@thecommunitylibrary.org.
